- Rio de Janeiro is well known for the beauty of its beaches and of its peaks, ridges, and hills—all partly covered by tropical forests.

ABOUT PUC-RIO

- PUC-Rio was the first private higher education institution in the country, created by the Catholic Church. It was founded in 1940 and, beyond providing education, PUC-Rio undertook the task of assisting the community, based on Christian ethical values, solidarity and human respect. It represents a space for achievement, overcoming challenges and development of its students.
- The university operates under the supervision of the Society of Jesus and under the supreme authority of the Cardinal Archbishop of Rio de Janeiro as its Grand Chancellor.
- PUC-Rio is a non-profit philanthropic institution and a Catholic university based in Christian humanistic principles.
- It welcomes students, staff members, teachers, researchers and administrators of all religions, nationalities, ethnic groups and social classes.
- The referential starting-point of PUC-Rio is the complete development of the human being in two main perspectives: the philosophical and the theological. Besides that, it is an intense doctoral research institution that focuses primarily in the development of academic and scientific knowledge.

BRAZILIAN SEMINARS PROGRAM

- The Brazilian Seminars developed by PUC-Rio is an international summer school which provides students, young scholars and international administrators with the opportunity to deepen their knowledge about Brazil.
- It's an interdisciplinary program meant to give a broad perspective of Brazilian issues which are currently in the global scenario.

HOUSING

- PUC-Rio does not provide dormitory facilities on campus but offers an enriched opportunity for students to experience the Brazilian way of life by placing them in a home-stay program.
- International students are placed in home-stays located in the south zone of the city, the same as the university. Most families live near PUC-Rio, within 30 - 40 minutes distance from campus by city bus.
- It includes a private room with a bed, a fan, a weekly change of sheets and towels, access to light and gas and a Brazilian breakfast (coffee, milk, bread, butter, jelly and fruit). Access to kitchen and laundry facilities is also included.

WEATHER IN RIO IN JULY

- July is known not as a warm month. The average maximum daytime temperature in Rio de Janeiro in July lies at 25.4°C (77.72°F). Usually it is the coldest month of the year. The average minimum temperature goes down to around 17.1°C (62.78°F) (often the minimum temperature is noted at night).
- Rainfall during July is moderate with an average of 31mm (1.2 inches). This makes it the driest month of the year. There are generally around 9 rainy days. The sun will show itself now and again, with 183 hours of sunshine during the entire month.

WHAT TO PACK

- The winter can get chilly in the evenings though so layers are a great way to keep your luggage light.
- The dress code in Rio de Janeiro is casual and given the climate, this tends to mean shorts and t-shirts.
- Think about your comfort in the humid conditions. Light clothing, cotton tops, shorts and flowing skirts will help keep you cool.
- Long sleeved lightweight shirts and blouses will help prevent mozzie attacks in the evenings.
- When thinking about how much to pack, just bear in mind you'll only get 1 wear out of any outfit before it needs laundering because of the humidity.
- It can rain in Rio de Janeiro anytime of the year so a light jacket and maybe even an umbrella won't go amiss.

TRANSPORTATION

- Buses
- Taxi and other mobility apps
- Subway
- Bike
